“WUCA is designed to encourage and challenge the most important treasure in our lives-that’s our children. The scriptural foundation and prayers will help the children in times of trouble. The school provides loving care and wise guidance to our children.”

➤ WUCA's Character Education

We recognize that each student's moral development is as essential to the school mission as academic learning. Character education is more than just an add-on to the school day. It is integrating positive values into every aspect of school life, from discipline policies to curricula to after school activities.

➤ WUCA's Faculty

Character Education requires strong leadership and a principal with the vision to see the importance of developing morally responsible adults. Teachers that follow the guidelines of the principal are the molders and shapers of young peoples' character as true shepherds. WUCA is blessed with a community of likeminded parents and staff with a responsible school board overseeing that the mission is being accomplished.

➤ Important topics covered

WUCA believes in putting first things first. Therefore, according to the order of importance, the following topics are taught first in the school: God and creation, his kingdom, his righteousness, fear of God, obedience, submission to authority, honoring the parents, obey the Ten Commandments, humility and other virtues, purity and patriotism, responsibility and diligence, hard work and caring for others servant hood and interpersonal relationship, self-control, patience, abstinence, discipline, judgment, life after death and standing for the truth and so on.

➤ Today's Youth:

Without religion there is no morality. Today's youth are at the cross roads because of the prohibition of religion(Bible reading and prayer) and morality. Our youth face many challenges such as: morally corrupt films and television programs, increasingly perverted music, pornographic invasion of the internet, civil initiatives promoting alternate lifestyle, battles to remove morals and ethics from public places, schools and institutions of higher learning.

➤ Materials used :

Historical experience proved that rigid moral and ethical instruction would build character in young people. Therefore, WUCA has been using religious especially, Christian materials in the class room for character education. Besides Bible, the academy uses 'Pilgrims Progress', biographies of great men and women, Pilgrims or founding fathers, great American heroes and a large number of books and materials to empower the young people to follow good men and women of great courage and integrity. We teach 'crown and glory of life is character and a man of good character is honored by all.

"Intelligence plus character- that is the goal of true education." (Martin Luther King Jr.)

WUCA trains teachers and school staff to develop and initiate school wide character education programs. WUCA's parent body stand fully with school policies of discipline. We believe in strong family values to build a strong nation of well discipline citizens.

Today's youth are tomorrow's decision makers. 'As go the children so goes the nation'. Therefore, it is vital that we should instill moral values, ethical principles and absolute truth in the young people.

❖ What Parents ought to know?

Home is the first school of all civic virtues. Love, joy, peace, sacrifice, obedience. Care, Self-control, patience, kindness, mercy, showing respect etc. are learned first at home. School must reinforce these values and promote their application or practices. Then the school has helped the parents. The school's mission and the parents goal must coincide. The parents must make sure what the students are learning in the class room because today's text books will determine tomorrow's culture. A curriculum that will promote good character in the children should accomplish the mission of character education. This kind of partnership will produce a strong generation.

"WUCA, an experience in educational excellence, one that will help develop the skills, habits and attitudes which promote maximum growth spiritually, mentally, and soulilly. Thank you for your dedication to the childrens of this generation".
